To the INHABITANTS Of the Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA.

My dear Countrymen,

IN my laſt, I took the Liberty to lay before you the Boſton Port Bill; pointed out the injurious and oppreſſive Nature of it; and endeavoured to convince you, that it ſo far ſurpaſſes all the other parliamentary Attacks upon American Liberty, that the Stamp-Act itſelf does not deſerve to be compared to it. I now beg Leave to ſhew you, the ſtill more poiſonous Nature of the two Acts ſince paſſed, from which it is evident, that our Lives are alike inſecure with our Property.

The Miniſtry taking it for granted, that a noble and generous People would not give up their Liberties without ſome Struggles, and having given forth the moſt ſanguinary Orders for the Execution of the Acts, well knowing, that the Soldiery in general were apt to exceed the Bounds preſcribed by Law, and might thereby be in Danger of the Gallows in this Country, where at leaſt the Form of Law is ſtill to be kept up; that they may put the Americans under the moſt awful Apprehenſions of a Soldier, who may cut their Throats unavenged, have got it Enacted, That "upon the Commiſſion of any Murders in "Support of the REVENUE LAWS, if the Governor ſo "pleaſes, he ſhall have the Cauſe tried—NOT where the "Fact was committed, but in ANOTHER *Colony, or in "*GREAT BRITAIN."

But what American is there, who would be willing, in the preſent State of Things, to have the Aſſaſſin of his Friend tried in England?—When the Blood-thirſty Miniſtry would exhauſt the Treaſury to protect their Murderers at the Brentford Election, in the Country where they lived, what Chance has an American for Juſtice in England?—far from his Friends—far from the Place where the Fact was committed; where Injuſtice itſelf, if it be againſt an American, muſt meet with Applauſe; and where it is impoſſible to get Witneſſes to accuſe the Guilty. It is the Miniſter (for the King can do no Wrong) that orders the Sword to be ſtruck, it is the Miniſter therefore muſt defend it—and is it to be ſuppoſed, that he will take Care to have the Witneſſes carried over the Atlantic, which will condemn the Men who are in the Execution of his illegal Orders? Here are we then thrown into the Hands of a mercileſs Soldiery—thrown into their Hands by a Britiſh Parliament—thoſe Guardians of Liberty!—Not only our Property given and granted to the King, but our Lives to be cut off, and we to be murdered, at the Pleaſure of any Hutchinſon that may be ſent over, and all without Redreſs! The Door of the Common Law ſhut up againſt us; the Privilege of having Murder tried in the Vicinity, torn out of our Hands.—The Plan of miniſterial Oppreſſion, my Fellow-Subjects, ripens faſt upon us. Lord God, of his infinite Mercy, protect an innocent much injured People! If we admit of the Execution of theſe Acts, as Mr. Sawbridge moſt juſtly obſerves, we are now become "the moſt abject "Slaves that ever the Earth produced: I leave it to you, my Countrymen, whether we are not put upon a worſe Footing than our Slaves in this Country, in the Article of Life.

CHARTERS, upon the Faith of which People have ſubdued and planted a Country, have (except in the Reign of the Stuarts) ever been eſteemed ſacred. But the preſent miniſterial Parliament, without any Ceremony, break and diſannul one of the moſt important Charters in America, in every Inſtance which diſtinguiſhed that Province, from thoſe Colonies which have been planted on the moſt diſadvantageous Terms. Not by a Writ of Quo Warranto—not in the only legal Method—not upon regular Trial—not after the Accuſed had been heard in their own Defence—but by an abſolute Law—by declaring their Will—ſupported by an armed Force. The higheſt Crime a Government can be guilty of, even where it acts within its own Bounds, is the Breach of Public Faith—the arbitrary Breach of a CHARTER! This is a Specimen of what all the Charters in America may expect, while they ſecure any one Privilege to the People.

Becauſe a Council choſen by the People might not concur in Meaſures for their Butchery and Oppreſſion—that the Council may be no more a Check upon the Arm of a Tyrant—they are now to be wholly the King's Creatures, and not to adviſe, but what his Miniſter pleaſes.

Becauſe the Judges and Magiſtrates, elected by the Repreſentatives of the People, might do Juſtice according to Oath, independent of the Pleaſure of an arbitrary Governor—becauſe even the Council, Creatures of the Crown as they are, might be ſome Check upon the Governor, in the Choice of notoriouſly corrupt Magiſtrates, the Power is now to be lodged wholly in the Hands of the Governor. For Fear that the Man he chooſes ſhould, by Miſtake, be found to have one Spark of Virtue in his Soul, his Commiſſion ſhall not be during good Behaviour, but during Pleaſure. For Fear, upon any Emergency, the common Magiſtrates may be ſhocked with the Illegality of an arbitrary Proceeding, and heſitate, the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and Secretary, are made Juſtices of the Peace.

Without Regard to the antient Police of the Government, the Town-Meetings, by which moſt of their public Affairs were managed, are now ſuppreſſed, one excepted, and no Proviſion made for the legal Diſpatch of ſuch other Buſineſs as was uſually done in them; whereby a moſt orderly Province, may be reduced to the greateſt Confuſion, and lie wholly at Mercy.

But, that a People ſo oppreſſed, may not have the Opportunity of publickly conveſſing of their Grievances, or ſeeking Redreſs,—no, not ſo much as by humble Supplication to the Throne; it is ordered, that they publickly converſe on no other Buſineſs, but that on which the Governor, by his Sign Manual, gives them Leave to converſe upon. If they ſhould chance to propoſe any Thing in Support of their juſt Rights, they will now be attacked by an armed Force—they muſt not defend themſelves: This is Rebellion. If they do, they are to be maſſacred. Is it not better to die, than to live under ſuch an Egyptian Yoke?

But is this all? No, my Countrymen. The Juriet of that Province have been much upon the ſame Footing with yours. They had this Advantage, that the Names of all thoſe who were fit to ſerve as Jury-men, were propoſed to the Town, and voted for; after which they were put into a Box, and drawn by the firſt Boy that occurred, whenever they were wanted. Even the Sheriff was elective. But theſe were too great Bulwarks againſt Tyranny. You ſee what you are to expect in the Article of Juries. Every Thing that is a Privilege, the Americans may expect to loſe. I expect ſoon to loſe the Privilege of writing freely, and to find the Preſs condemned to Silence. The Sheriff is now to be put in by the Governor, and if his Tool, he may pick Juries as he thinks proper. And that it may be in the Power of the Judges to diſtreſs the Province more, it is left to them, to remove an Action from one County to another, at Pleaſure.

Privileges like theſe, which are now raviſhed from that too happy People, are worthy of being defended by half their Blood. Nothing but Weakneſs can, at any Time, be an Apology for the Surrendry of ſuch Privileges; and Death, in ſuch a Cauſe, Heaven itſelf would not only vindicate, but applaud.

Here you ſee near one Quarter of America, as an Example to the Reſt, ſtripped of almoſt every Thing that is worth living for. If it was by legal, by conſtitutional Authority, though miſled, it would be ſome Conſolation. But no Power under Heaven has a conſtitutional Right to do theſe Things. Our Lands, our Monies, our Lives, are no longer ſecure, from the Attempts of a rapacious Miniſter, who now ſays to the Parliament, as the God of Heaven ſays to Diſeaſes, come and they come—go and they go.

It has been the Art of your inteſtine Enemies, as the Ruin of this Country would gratify their Hearts, to repreſent this as only deſigned to curb the Licentiouſneſs of that particular People; not intended to have Influence upon the Spirit of the whole Continent. Even illiberal Reflections have not been ſpared (to keep your juſt Reſentments from riſing) but ignorantly caſt, upon the braveſt People in America. But whoever conſiders the Caſe juſtly, muſt allow, that CAROLINA and NEW-ENGLAND are happy in being connected, and in ſtretching their Arms to each other. Let America think herſelf happy, that ſhe has ſuch a Number of ſtaunch Friends to Liberty as the New-England Colonies abound with: And mark the Man, who, at this Time, caſts an inviduous Reflection upon thoſe Votaries to Liberty, and you will find the Features of Slavery harden his Face, and her green Gall jaundice his Eye. Is that deſigned only to curb the Town of Boſton, which was carried violently thro' the Commons, with the loud Cry, "Shall the Americans be "ſubject to US or not?" Shall that be ſuppoſed as only aiming at that fated Town, when Lord North, in Recommendation of it, uſed ſcarce any other Argument, but 'that of the Neceſſity of ſubduing the American Spirit now, in Time of Peace; and when he baſely threatened to ſhut up all our Harbours. O Americans! my Countrymen! Will you wait, till that Foe to your Happineſs ſhall execute his Threats? Have the Spirit to ſhut up your own Harbours, as to Britiſh Commerce, and ſuck of the Breaſts of your own Abundance. We have no Need of Arms to defend ourſelves. We want nothing but Self Denial, to triumph. If America would turn her Eyes to her own inteſtine Riches, ſhe would now be courted, inſtead of ſuffering Oppreſſion.

An Enemy always aims at the Heart. The Dart of miniſterial Vengeance would not firſt have been aimed at Boſton, if they did not well know, that there lie the VITALS of American Freedom.

Every important Place in the Northern Colonies is now reſolving on ſome Meaſures that may be deciſive—none other will do. The Riſe of the Minions of Slavery, ſeems to be dying. The Voice of American Liberty riſes, and the Sentiments of all ſeem to unite. Every patriotic Boſom here throbs for the 6th of July. Heaven grant you a fair Day: But above all, that cool diſpaſſionate Wiſdom, and that Unanimity and Firmneſs, which the MOST IMPORTANT Meaſure that ever this Country entered upon, requires. As a Freeman, among Freemen, and to ripen your Thoughts, I take the Liberty to propoſe,

1ſt. That you freely paſs your Sentiments, in a ſpirited Reſolve, upon the Boſton Port-Act, the MURDER ACT, and that which deſtroys the Charter of our Siſter Colony, as OPPRESSIVE, TYRANNICAL, and ILLEGAL, and ſhould

PROPOSALS

FOR AN IMPROVED

OF THE

COLONY OF SOUTH-CAROLINA.

TO BE EMBELLISHED

With an elegant FRONTISPIECE,

By a CAPITAL HAND,

CONDITIONS.

THE Dimenſions of the MAP will be Thirty Inches by Thirty-four Inches, being on a Scale of ſeven Miles to an Inch, in which, with proper Diſtinctions, will be laid down, the

SEA-COAST, ISLANDS,	RIVERS, CREEKS,	LAKES, SWAMPS, &c.

ALSO, THE SEVERAL

TOWNS, COURT-HOUSES, CHURCHES, MEETING-HOUSES,	CHAPELS, FORTS, TAVERNS,	ROADS, BRIDGES, FERRIES, &c.

With the Diviſions and Subdiviſions of the Colony into Counties, Diſtricts, Pariſhes, Townſhips, the Catawba Tract, &c. &c. &c.

The Price to Subſcribers will be FIVE POUNDS Currency each. Thoſe who chuſe to have them coloured, which will be but a moderate Addition to the Price, are are deſired to make that Diſtinction on ſubſcribing, the Money to be paid on Delivery of the MAP, which will be about the firſt Day of January next.

N. B. A few POCKET MAPS, on a Scale of twenty Miles to an Inch, will be ſtruck off upon Parchment, for the Uſe of the Gentlemen who ride the Circuits, and others who travel.—The Price to Subſcribers ONE DOLLAR each.

The Publiſhers having examined the Performances of the beſt Maſters in this Branch of engraving, have reſolved to give the Preference to one of the greateſt Merit, being determined to ſpare no Expence with Reſpect to the Neatneſs of the Engraving, the fineneſs of the Paper, and Beauty of the Colouring, to render this one of the moſt elegant Performances of the Kind in AMERICA. Thoſe Gentlemen who are inclined to patronize the Undertaking, are requeſted to give in their Names ſoon that a Liſt of the Subſcribers may be printed.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are received by Peter Timothy, and Charles Crouch, Printers, Robert Wells, and Nicholas Langford, Booksellers, Bonneau & Wilſon, and William Doughty, Merchants in Charles-Town; Anthony Bonneau, Merchant in George-Town; Edward Davies, Merchant in Beaufort; and by ſeveral other Gentlemen in Town and Country.

AS there are already two Maps of this Colony extant, it may be neceſſary to give ſome Reaſons for undertaking a Third, and as this is chiefly owing to the Inaccuracies obſerved in the others, we need only particularize the ſeveral Alterations, Corrections, and Additions in the preſent one, that the Public may judge whether they are of Conſequence ſufficient to induce ſuch a Publication. In doing this, we hope we ſhall not offend the Conſtructors of thoſe Maps, as the Errors we are under the Neceſſity of pointing out, are not imputed to Want of Abilities, but to the Nature of the Subject, which will not admit of Perfection, but by gradual Advances.

I. The ſeveral Diſtrict Lines are laid down from actual Surveys, which in the firſt Map are all, except one, omitted, and in the ſecond, drawn from the Directions of the Circuit-Court Act, the Conſequence of which is, that many Houſes, and other remarkable Places, repreſented by them to be in one Diſtrict, are, in Reality, found to be many Miles within another; to which we may add, that in the laſt Map, One Half of the Diſtrict of Ninety-Six, is included in that of Camden.—We have, in the Courſe of our Survey, carefully noted every River, Creek, Swamp, Bay, Branch, Road, &c. in our Way, and reduced them to their proper Places, and made many Additions of others not to be found in the other Maps.

II. The Townſhips of Williamſburgh, Orangeburgh, Frederickſburgh, Kingſton, Hillſborough, and Belfaſt, (the two laſt miſnamed New-Bourdeaux, and Londonderry) being erroneouſly laid down, are conſiderably corrected; and thoſe of Queenſborough, Beaufortborough, and the Welch Tract, omitted in the other Maps, are here added.—The Bounds of the Pariſhes of Prince Frederick, St. Mark, and St. David, not deſined in the firſt Map, and erroneouſly done in the ſecond, are laid down from actual Survey; and the Bounds of St. Matthew, and St. James, Gooſe-Creek, likewiſe undetermined in both, are here inſerted.

III. Excluſive of the Advantages derived from laying out the ſeveral Diſtrict Lines, the Publiſhers have been able in the Courſe of their Practice to make many other Corrections and Additions from actual Surveys, particularly of the whole Pariſhes of St. James, Santee; a conſiderable Part of the Pariſhes of St. John, Berkley County, St. Thomas, Chriſt-Church, St. Matthew, St. Mark, St. David, Prince Frederick, St. Paul, and St. John, Colleton-County, the new Acquiſition, alſo Santee River, for the Diſtance of One Hundred Miles, including the Creeks and Iſlands near its Mouth, and the Harbour of North-Ediſto from its Entrance to the Confluence of North and South-Ediſto Rivers.

IV. The Meridians are drawn as reſpecting the Number of Miles contained in a Degree of Longitude in their Latitudes, ſhewing the Difference of Time between the City of London and Charles-Town, or between any two Places in the Colony; a Circumſtance neglected in the other MAPS.

V. In the nominal Part the Orthography is corrected, and many Places appearing without Names, that Defect is here ſupplied.

VI. The ſeveral Houſes are omitted for this Reaſon, that as the Proprietors of them are continually changing, the Inſertion of them would ſerve no other End in the Courſe of a few Years, than to perplex and confuſe, beſides, as it would be impoſſible to inſert them all, we might incur the Charge of Partiality.——We hope this will be conſidered as an Improvement rather than a Defect, as every Gentleman may determine the preciſe Situation of his own Houſe, by obſerving the River, Creek, or Swamp, on which it is ſituated, or its Diſtance from any Church, Chapel, Tavern, Road, Bridge, or Ferry.

VII. Laſtly, we may mention the Size, as another Advantage, as in every Map or Plan it is neceſſary for the Eye to command the Whole at one View, in order to form a juſt Idea of the Relation and Connection between the ſeveral Parts, while at the ſame Time, it ſhould be ſo large as to avoid the Confuſion occaſioned by being too much crouded: In the firſt Reſpect, the large Map is particularly defective, being rather an Incumbrance than an Ornament to any Apartment; the ſmall one is on the other Extreme.—We hope the preſent one will be found in a proper Medium; the Proportions between the three being nearly as 3, 7, and 9, and yet by a different Diſpoſition of the Compartment, and other detached Parts, it will be but three Inches wider, and no deeper than the ſmall one.

To conclude, from the above Materials, carefully collected, and properly digeſted, the Publiſhers flatter themſelves, it is now in their Power to preſent the moſt correct and complete MAP of the Colony of SOUTH-CAROLINA, which induces them to hope for that Favour and Encouragement, which the Public are ever generous enough to afford to thoſe who contribute in any Manner to their Entertainment.

as a Weapon against the just Rights of all His Majesty's Dominions in America.

2dly. Resolve, that you are, and will be, most loyal Subjects to the King; but that the late unconstitutional Acts of Parliament render it necessary for all the Colonies firmly to unite, and, by all lawful Means, to support the Town of Boston, and the Province of Massachusetts-Bay, in the Possession of their chartered Rights and Privileges, and to give them all the Countenance and Help in your Power.

3dly. That, for this Purpose, you will appoint a Committee, to devise and propose such Expedients for the Relief and Support of those Thousands of Poor in Boston, whose daily Bread is, by Force, taken out of their Mouths, until some Measures shall be fallen upon more effectually to relieve them. And particularly, that it be recommended to this Committee, to take in immediate Subscriptions, and make what Collections of Money they can, to be transmitted to some of the most noted Gentlemen in Boston, for the Relief of their Poor.

But, that some more general and effectual Means may be devised, to promote the HARMONY of all the Colonies, in some prudent, but spirited Attempts to support their Privileges as Englishmen:

4thly. That you will, in the next Place, agree upon a general Congress, to be held in the most convenient Part of the Continent, as soon as possibly the Sense of the other Colonies can be obtained; and in order to this, that you will now choose Commissioners, who shall have Power, in your Name, to meet the said Congress, wherever and whenever it may meet.

But that these Commissioners may be properly furnished on your Parts, and know how far to go:

5thly. That you will enter into certain solemn Resolutions as to your Commerce, which you can and will abide by, to commence from the Day the Congress shall appoint, viz.

I. It is proposed to be resolved, that you will break OFF ALL COMMERCE with Great-Britain, Ireland, Africa, and the West India Islands, until the tyrannical Port-Act, the MURDER-ACT, and that which breaks the Charter of Massachusetts-Bay, shall be repealed, or until it is known that, by the Royal Order, they are absolutely discontinued, and all the Owners of Wharves, &c. in Boston and Places adjacent are restored to their just Rights; with only this Exception, that it be permitted to export your Rice and Indico till Feb. 1775, and no longer, unless all the American Grievances are before that Time redressed; and to import Negro Cloth, Blankets, Osnabrugs, Hoes, Axes, Nails, Plantation Tools, Lead, Arms and Ammunition, and a few other Materials absolutely necessary to your present Subsistance, only until you can establish your own Manufactories for these Articles. And that, from the Day of the Meeting, no one of you will buy a single Negro imported by the African Merchants, or purchased from them, until the said Port-Act, and other oppressive Acts shall cease to operate, and we are restored precisely to the State we were in before the infernal Idea of the Stamp Act entered into the Head of George Grenville.

II. That you will appoint a large Committee, to wait upon every Person of any Consequence, as far as practicable, in the Province, with the foregoing Resolution, and any others of the like Kind, to get them signed; and desire the said Committee to give Intelligence, in the Gazettes, of any Person or Persons who shall either refuse to sign, or who shall presume to violate such Resolutions, that they may be properly distinguished from the Friends of America.

III. That the above Resolutions shall be, upon no Pretence whatever, broken in upon, or cease to be binding, until the entire Withdraw of the Oppression by the Acts of Parliament aforesaid,—and not then, until a general Meeting of the Inhabitants of the Province, duly warned by their Committee, shall, by a major Vote, declare them broken, and the Cause ceased.

IV. That the Committee be desired to obtain a Promise from the Merchants, that even before the NON-IMPORTATION AGREEMENT takes Place in its full Extent, all their Orders for Goods (except the Articles before excepted) shall be countermanded and suspended, upon the Condition of the Repeal of the Acts, or an Edict from the Crown to prevent their Operation.

V. That to crown all, you will agree to adopt such Plans of Oeconomy, and to prosecute such Manufactories, as may enable us, as soon as possible, to live entirely independent upon that Country, which till lately we revered as a Mother, but who is now misled to her own future Ruin, but our most probable future Glory.

Such, or some such Measures as these, will do more for you, than all the Arguments and Petitions in the World. We had better die in the Field, than tamely to bear the Chains now forged for us. But we need only fight our Oeconomy; suppress for a while our Luxury and Corruption, and wield the Arms of Self Denial in our own Houses, to obtain the Victory. British Goods and Negroes cannot be crammed down our Throats. British Goods and Negroes in this Circumstance, are worse than the Eastern Pestilence. And the Man who would not refuse himself a few Coat, to save his Country, deserves to be hanged. The Plan proposed has once succeeded already, though less perfect than it now may be made. Experience has taught us how to ripen it. Even those Things which obstruct us to give up a little too soon, may be now avoided. If we are somewhat pinched, by this Kind of Resistance, is it not worth while thus to PERPETUATE our FREEDOM, and DETER Tyranny and Oppression from crossing the Atlantic, and filling our peaceful Retreats with their cursed Hand-mills!

By this Means, the Planter and Merchant would have Time to get out of Debt, and be ready to improve the hoped-for Dawn of Freedom's Morning.

I would caution you against those fly Attempts which are generally made at the opening of such Meetings, to confuse the Minds of the People. The Enemies of LIBERTY have ever attempted to divide the People, when they could not subvert them from their Object. Beware of the Man who comes with any foreign Proposals, or who attempts to lead you into that which is impracticable. He designs by that, to defeat you. Watch the Lean of those well-worn Patriots who have long had such Things in Hand, and trust the Men whom you have tried.

Parties and Distinctions seem to the Northward to be extinguished, by the Common Danger. So let them be here. Let one common Soul animate the Merchant, the Planter, and the Tradesman; and that Man be hissed, who shall dare to throw out a Hint to disunite them. You rise together on the Car of Freedom, or you sink together into the same Grave.

A CAROLINIAN.

CHARLES-TOWN, JUNE 27.

ON Tuesday last two Headmen of the Creek Nation of Indians, arrived at the Cowpen of George Galphin, Esqr on Ogeeches, with an Answer to Sir James Wright's Demand of Satisfaction for the late Murders committed in Georgia, from the Headmen of the Cowetas, Cussitahs and Cherokees, accompanied with a white Wing; acquainted His Excellency, that they had put three of the Murderers to Death, viz. Oakfalkee, Chief of the Gang, Miley Headman of the Tomawtlay's in the Forks, and his Nephew;—that having given this Satisfaction, they hoped the Path would now be made straight;—and that the white People, whom they longed to see, would again come into the Nation,—for that all was now Peace;—in Token of which they had sent his Excellency the White Wing.—So great is Mr. Galphin's Influence over those Indians, (which has always been exerted for the General Good) that these Headmen were ordered to deliver the Talk to no one else; to get him to forward it to Sir James Wright; and to wait at his Cowpen for an Answer. They had been only ten Days from the Nation. Mr. Galphin upon being sent for, accordingly went from his Seat at Silver-Bluff, in this Province, to Ogeechee, and dispatched the Talk and white Wing from thence. Emistisigo had been appointed to bring down the Talk, but the Chactah's having killed a Woman near his Residence, he went in Pursuit of the Enemy, and the Headmen then appointed the present Messengers.

A Sloop is now loaded, at Mr. Gadsden's Wharf, and ready to clear out, with Rice, being a Part of the benevolent Contribution of the Inhabitants of this Colony, for the immediate Relief of those Poor in Boston, who are now suffering the most violent ministerial Oppression, for having exerted themselves in Defence of the constitutional Rights of America.—Subscriptions and Collections are also making in different Parts of the Country, for the same Purpose—from whence it may be seen whether we will desert any Sister-Colony in Distress.

Yesterday arrived, the Ship Magna-Charta, Captain Maitland, from London. It appears by his Cockets, that he has brought over two Chests and an Half of Tea, for two of our Merchants; but it is not probable, that the same will be received by them, or the Duty thereon paid here. It is expected, if we can presume to know the present Temper of the Inhabitants, that Capt. Maitland will carry it back to England.

Last Week the Hon. John Stuart, Esq; Superintendant of Indian Affairs, returned to Town, from his Seat at the Southward.

The whole Company of American Comedians, are now gone, different Ways; except Mr. Goodman, who remains to deliver Mr. Stevens's Lectures upon Heads.

James Simpson, Esq; is, by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, appointed Attorney General of this Province, during the Absence of Sir Egerton Leigh, Bart.

Since our last died, Mrs. Sarah Edmonds—Mrs. Bush, Wife of Mr. John Bush, Merchant—and Mr. Jacob Axson, sen. for some Years past one of the Messengers of the Commons House of Assembly of this Province.

Yesterday passed by our Bar, and was spoke with by Mr. Duvall, one of our Pilots, the Brigt. Allerton, Capt. John Woods, from Liverpoole, bound for Georgia.

Quantity of Rice cleared, 83,500 Tierces—Price 50*s.* per 100lb.

☞ Every Member of the General Committee, is requested to attend a Meeting thereof on Tuesday Morning next (the 5th of July) by Nine o'Clock in the Morning, at Mrs. Swallow's. ☜
